Application: I understand that no booking exists until a receipt and official acknowledgement are issued. I further understand that bookings may be cancelled by the organizing group if numbers are insufficient for the camp or if it appears that the applicant is unsuitable for the camp. A high standard of behavior is expected from all campers and anyone found to be in breach of these conditions will be sent home. I understand that in this event I will be expected to arrange for the transport of my child and cover the expense. Each person is liable for any and all damage he/she causes to the premises, before departure. I understand that photographs of activities taken by organizers during the holiday may be used for promotional or display purposes. The safety and well-being of the young people who attend camp is of the utmost importance to us and every effort will be made to ensure this. However, please note that we cannot necessarily be held responsible for any loss, damage or injury suffered by a child whilst at camp. In common with most schools and similar organizations we do not arrange personal accident insurance. Should you require this, you are advised to consult your insurance agent. We are, however, covered by a public liability insurance policy.

NEW Notice

For Junior Campers

Mobile Phone Use at Camp This Year

At Junior Camp 2025 we are implementing a policy of limited mobile/ no mobile telephones in Junior Camp.

Children will be allowed to bring their mobile phones to camp but will be required to hand them in to leaders for most of the day and especially at key times during the day. During services, activities swimming sessions and throughout the night time period. Mobile phones will not be allowed in bedrooms at any time. Leaders will ensure children have their phones in order to contact their parents at reasonable times during the day. Your church leader/pastor will organise who keeps your child's mobile telephone. We suggest that you agree with your Pastor/Church leaders when would be best to contact them to enquire of your child's well being during the camp week.

Better still keep your child's mobile phone at home.

Pastor/youth leader: Please ensure forms are correctly completed and send them and monies due (cheques payable to BBF - GB Camp Fund) to Mr. Ron Downey Baptist Manse, Caerherbert Lane Rhayader, Wales LD65EE
